

How to Repair Broken Relationships

Get Real
Part 7 of 7

I Have Decided

“The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God’s grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.”

1 Peter 4:7-11

1. To nurture my important relationships.

“...the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.”
Colossians 2:19

2. To restore my broken relationships.

“Do not repay anyone evil...If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.”

Romans 12:17-18

3. To sever any harmful relationships.

“A mirror reflects a man’s face but what he is really like is shown by the kind of friends he chooses.”

Proverbs 27:19 GN

“He who walks with the wise grows wise but a companion of fools suffers harm.”
Proverbs 13:20

“Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?”

2 Corinthians 6:14

4. To initiate some meaningful relationships.

“Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”
Hebrews 10:25
